Before I Let Go (My Daughter's Wedding)

She's twirling around in her play dress
White shimmering six year old dreams
A cascade of fairytales, weddings and princes
Pretending she giggles with me

Take my hand for this first dance my dear
I'm the proudest Dad in the world
Your wedding day waltz will one day be here
Before I let go I want you to know
You will always be my little girl

She's sailing on in her friendships
Bright radiant glow in her smile
A whirlwind from grade school to grown up in minutes
Today she will walk down the aisle

Take my hand and I'll give you away
I'm the proudest Dad in the world
We'll walk down the aisle on your biggest day
Before I let go I want you to know
You will always be my little girl

Take my hand for this first dance my dear
I'm the proudest Dad in the world
Your wedding day waltz is finally here
Before I let go I want you to know
You will always be my little girl

Hold my hand for this first dance my dear
I'm the proudest Dad in the world
Before I let go I want you to know
I Love You...
Don't ever let go
